Message from the nominating committee -
The new officers take over as of June 1.

The British Columbia Camp Meeting is from July 28 – August 5, 2023. A great lineup of speakers and seminars will be at this Camp Meeting and you will not want to miss it.

The BC Conference now has a wonderful website for Camp Meeting 2023. If you wish to find out about speakers, seminars, concerts, the time of events etc then all you have to do is click on the following link and follow the various prompts. Here's the link: <https://2023.bccampmeeting.ca/main-pavilion/>

LCS: A HUGE thank you to the Deer Lake School family for their tremendous support this week of cheerful, generous service and for sharing their special talents and time with us! God bless you on your continued journey. "What a fellowship, what a joy divine, leaning on the Everlasting Arms!" Thank you!

Memorial Service - Pastor Don Stoyanowski peacefully went to sleep in the arms of Jesus on May 6. The family of Pastor Don invites you to attend his memorial service that will be held on Sabbath, June 17, at 3:30 pm at Church in the Valley (23589 Old Yale Rd., Langley, BC V2Z 2K4). The service will also be live-streamed at www.churchinthevalley.ca. Pastor Don had a passion for evangelism and winning souls for Jesus. He will always be remembered for his love of the young people in the church, new believers, and the older ones as well. You are welcome to reach out to Pastor Don's family by emailing his son, Lawrence Stoyanowski, at stenno@telus.net.

I would like to solicit your prayers for the Maritime Conference (and our provinces across Canada) as Nova Scotia and New Brunswick battle the out-of-control forest fires. Dave has reported that our church in Oak Park is dangerously close to the fire in Barington and many of the members have been evacuated from their residences.
