Selection of a Nominating Committee: I sent out an email link to SurveyMonkey earlier this week for the selection of potential candidates to serve on this year's Nominating Committee. Response has been good but there are still some who have not replied. If for some reason you have not seen or cannot find that email please give me a call. As time is pressing we are asking you to submit your selections by no later than midnight this evening. Once your submissions are tabulated and a committee is selected we will present a report for 1st and 2nd readings. Your nominations will remain completely anonymous. Thank you. Pastor Little
